Dear Kitty,

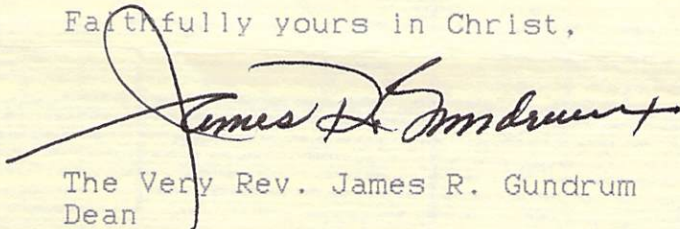

You were magnificent to send me that great note. Thank you. It was a shot in the arm. It's notes like this that I want to frame and hang on my wall and when those days that come around that you always get that are downers, you want to go up and look at it and bask in the beauty of that letter to remind you that you aren't always such a misfit.

You were most kind to write your letter and say those nice things. I'll take all I can get my hands on, frankly, and you were a love to share your thoughts.

And I, too, hope that your New Year will be blessed and happy. Unfortunately, I'll not have the pleasure of being the Chairman of the Committee next year since I am hosting the Convention in Sioux Falls, but I hope you have a ball in the Resolutions Committee. It can be fun.

Thank you, again. With every good wish, I am

Faithfully yours in Christ,
